Orienting the new repl and conducting some review training for them in their squad positions. Continue care and cleaning of equipment and of personnel. Repaired our captured truck. Visited by Col. Walthsuer, Regt 100, in Col. York's absence. He ate with us, inspected kitchen and weapons. Commented very highly on food and kitchen and on clean weapons and clean appearing men. Have an assistant helping on writing up the awards. We hope to get some for many of our men who have earned them many times, but have not as yet had them approved. Col. York was in area day before yesterday. He is recovering from wounds and hopes to be back with us in a couple more weeks. He was hit while our Company was entering Kufferath, Germany. Col York commended our Company personally for its work and outstanding successes in taking Hill 6 and Hill 5 and Objective E there in Germany.

12 Jan 45 : Co. jumped off early this morning in Langlin. Called for TDs to assist against tanks. Battle for town continuing. A Co. with us, B Co. is being used to guard supply route. We took about 52 prisoners today and yesterday, killed 50 or 60 Jerries. They are an SS outfit with plenty of mechanized support. The shelling continues, but not quite as heavy.

Co. saw required film, "Your Job in Germany Today". Continued training in field. Had very good results in problem. "Fighting in Woods" using every detail with snow capes, etc. and providing surprise counter-attack. Aggressive action by flanking pltn broke up counter attack and gave new men excellent practice of way it should be done.
